We at Forgetmenot industries offer a very special service to our clients. We help them remember the legacy of their loved ones forever. We offer a variety of personalized products to achieve this goal. Books, DvD's and other of our specialized Memorabilia. These make meaningful gifts to family so they can always remember the stories and photos that frame the life of their loved one.

We only have those we love for a limited time. Their stories and lives can teach us so much.

We provide a variety of options for you to choose to fit your preference and budget.

Set up an account with us to get started saving memories!

The process is so simple:

1. Set up your personal account.
2. Choose your product.
3. Provide the content.
4. Our writers and designers put it together for you. OR You can design it yourself using our program.
5. Review and make any final changes
6. We print and ship

One of our more popular gifts is our specially designed books containing a history, photos and even audio recordings of your loved one. Our new, specially developed books are embedded with a special speaker in the back cover. With this new feature you can listen to your family member tell you their stories again and again.

Want a more digital route? Check out our DvD, and e-book options. You won't ever have to worry about oily finger prints or ripped pages. The DvD and e-book make it easier for you to access this priceless gift wherever you go.

Memorabilia. Everyone has a phrase or bit of council that they always heard their loved one say. Give those words a special place in your home with these signs and wall décor. We have wood plaques, 3-dimensional letter quotes, frames, magnets etc.

We want you to succeed in building your gift so we have provided resources that can help you along the way.

Interviewing. Many feel overwhelmed at this process. It may seem daunting, but these links to interview questions and tips will help you make the most of your interviews.

Do you have relatives that live far away? Send them a link to our website that will allow them to record their stories directly into our program.
